Re: Electric Motorcycle

Chief Mason,

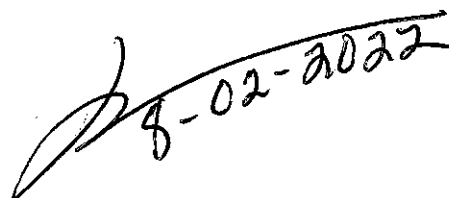

At your request I contacted two other motorcycle supply companies to inquire if they offered an electric motorcycle in a Law Enforcement edition.

Sill's Honda sales rep. advised me that, Honda will be coming out with an electric motorcycle in the near future however, it will only be offered in a civilian version and do not see a Law Enforcement Edition in the near future. I also made contact with a Harley Davidson local dealer and upon speaking with their sales rep. I learned that Harley Davidson currently does offer an electric motorcycle (Livewire) however, does not offer it in a Law Enforcement Edition and does not see any Law Enforcement edition being offered in the near future by the Harley Davidson Company.

Zero Motorcycles is the only company that currently manufactures an Electric Law Enforcement Edition motorcycle at this current time.

Respectfully,

Sgt. Christopher Colon
